Numb. 760. THE

South-Carolina GAZETTE.

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

From MONDAY October 31st, to MONDAY November 7th, 1748.

By His Excellency

JAMES GLEN, Esquire,

Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of South-Carolina.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS Preliminary Articles for a General Peace were signed at Aix-la-Chappelle the 19th of April last, O.S. by the Ministers of His Majesty, the Most Christian King, and the States General, which were afterwards acceded to by the Ministers of the Empress Queen of Hungary. And whereas the Ministers of His Most Catholic Majesty and of the Republic of Genoa, have in like Manner signed the said Act of Accession, to wit, on the 28th of June last, N.S. according to which all Hostilities are to cease by Sea and Land, in the Channel and the North Seas, after the Space of Twelve Days, to be computed from the Time of signing the said Accession, and all Ships, Merchandizes and Effects which may be taken in either of these Places shall after the said Period be mutually restored; and that the Term is of Six Weeks for Prizes made from the Channel, the British Seas, and the North Seas as far as Cape St Vincent; and in like Manner from and beyond that Cape as far as the Line, whether in the Ocean or in the Mediterranean; lastly, of Six Months beyond the Line and in all other Parts of the World, without Exception or other more particular Distinction of Time and of Place.

I have therefore thought fit to publish this my Proclamation, to give Notice thereof to all His Majesty's Subjects in this Province, that they may pay due Obedience thereto and strictly observe the same.

In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my Hand, and caused the Great Seal of this his Majesty's Province to be hereunto affixed, this Seventh Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Forty-eight, and in the Twenty-second Year of his Majesty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command,
Wm. Geo. Freeman, Dep. Secr.

JAMES GLEN.

By His Excellency

JAMES GLEN, Esquire,

Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of South-Carolina.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Governor, Council and Assembly of this Province are authorized and impowered to make, constitute and ordain Laws, Statutes and Ordinances for the Public Peace, Welfare and good Government of the same; which Laws, Statutes and Ordinances are to be as near as conveniently may be, agreeable to the Laws and Statutes of Great-Britain, and are to be transmitted to his Majesty for his Royal Approbation or Disallowance. And whereas an Act, passed on the 13th Day of June 1747, entituled, an Act to impower Two Justices and Three Freeholders, or a Majority of them, to determine in all Actions of Debt where the Matter in Dispute doth exceed Twenty Pounds current Money, (which is now equal to Four Pounds Proclamation Money) and is not more then Seventy-five Pounds current Money, (which is equal to Fifteen Pounds Proclamation Money,) which Act having been under the Consideration of the Lords Commissioners for Trade and Plantations, and also a Committee of the Lords of his Majesty's most honourable Privy Council; and the said Lords Commissioners, as also the said Lords of the Committee having reported as their Opinion to their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council, that the said Act ought to be repealed: Their Excellencies the Lords Justices were pleased, pleaſed, with the Advice of his Majeſty's moſt honourable Privy-Council, to declare their Diſallowance of the ſaid Act. And purſuant to their Lordſhips Pleaſure thereupon expreſſed, the ſaid Act is hereby repealed, declared void and of none Effect.

I have therefore thought fit to iſſue this my Proclamation, to give Notice to all Perſons whom it may concern, that the ſaid Act is repealed, that they may not pretend Ignorance thereof.

In Teſtimony whereof I have hereunto ſet my Hand, and cauſed the Great Seal of this his Majeſty's Province to be hereunto affixed, this Seventh Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty-eight, and in the Twenty-ſecond Year of his Majeſty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command,
Wm. Geo. Freeman, Dep. Secr.

JAMES GLEN.

By His Excellency

JAMES GLEN, Eſquire,

Captain-General, Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the Governor, Council and Aſſembly of this Province are authorized and impowered to make, conſtitute and ordain Laws, Statutes and Ordinances for the Public Peace, Welfare and good Government of the ſame; which Laws, Statutes and Ordinances are to be as nearly as may be, agreeable to the Laws and Statutes of Great-Britain, and are to be tranſmitted to his Majeſty for his Royal Approbation or Diſallowance. And whereas an Act, paſſed on the 24th Day of May 1745, entituled, an Act for enlarging the Qualifications of the Electors, as well as of the Perſons to be elected to ſerve as Members of the General Aſſembly of this Province, which Act having been under the Conſideration of the Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations, and alſo of a Committee of the Lords of his Majeſty's moſt honourable Privy Council; and the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners, as alſo the ſaid Lords of the Committee having reported as their Opinion to their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices in Council, that the ſaid Act ought to be repealed: Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices were pleaſed, with the Advice of his Majeſty's moſt honourable Privy Council, to declare their Diſallowance of the ſaid Act: And purſuant to their Lordſhips Pleaſure thereupon expreſſed, the ſaid Act is hereby repealed, declared void, and of none Effect.

I have therefore thought fit to iſſue this my Proclamation, to give Notice unto all Perſons whom it may concern, that the ſaid Act is repealed, that they may not pretend Ignorance thereof. And the General Aſſembly is hereby declared to be diſſolved.

In Teſtimony whereof I have hereunto ſet my Hand, and cauſed the Great Seal of this his Majeſty's Province to be hereunto affixed, this Seventh Day of November, in the Year of our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty-eight, and in the Twenty-ſecond Year of his Majeſty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command,
